EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

The Archdiocese of Southwark is setting up a Diocesan Adoration Lay Committee to develop the practice of Eucharistic Adoration throughout the Archdiocese. Below are two events that will take place in the next couple of weeks.

THE APOSTOLATE OF ADORATION

This talk will be given by Brendan Cleary on Saturday 3rd February, when he will explore the theme: The Apostolate of Adoration. At a time when meditation and mindfulness are popular concepts, how do we bring those thoughts towards embracing God's call to Eucharistic Adoration, striving to be a people of prayer, discernment and mission.

The talk will be given at The Centre for Catholic Formation in Tooting Bec at 11 am and at St Thomas More RC parish, West Malling, Kent at 3 pm on the same day.

All are very welcome!

A RIVER OF LIFE

A second event will take place at the CCF on Thursday 8 February at 6.30 pm in the form of an art workshop, which will be led by Rebekah O'Keeffe.

Water is a strong theme in the Diocese of Southwark, with the River Thames and Sea forming both boundary and gateway. At this workshop Rebekah will present the idea of 'A River of Life', using the Thames as a motif for Southwark. It is hoped that it will be possible to begin work on a collaborative image that will represent Southwark Diocese and all who worship here.
