It is with great sadness we inform you that Archbishop Michael Bowen died at 12.30 am on Thursday 17th October, at St Peter's Home, Vauxhall.

He served as Archbishop of Southwark from 1977 to 2003, having previously served as Bishop of Arundel and Brighton. He was a faithful servant of the Church and especially of the two dioceses of which he was the chief shepherd. Please do pray for him and his family.

Luke 18:7 ..."Will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night?"...

P - PRAY
U - UNTIL
S - SOMETHING
H - HAPPENS

Divine Mercy weekly quote:

Praying "always" may seem like an impossible task. Is it really possible to do so? Does God even expect this of us? It most certainly is and He most certainly does. No, we will not be called to spend all day, every day, at church in prayer. Not even those called to the cloistered monastic life do as such. But praying always is a must. It simply means that we have developed such a habit of closeness to God that our hearts are always with Him. We are always attentive to His presence and are always in communion with His grace. If we form this interior love for God, we will be praying always (See Diary #346).
